1179.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Hamburg, March 23 O. S.

We have received the following Particulars from Berlin, relating to the deceased Velt Marshal and Baron de Grumkau.

THAT Nobleman had not enjoy'd a good State of Health ever since December last. On the 5th of March, O. S. the Day before he died, he entertain'd several Persons of Distinction at Supper, and seem'd to be very well all the Time; but the Night following he complain'd of a Suffocation, and died instantly. It seems as if this Minister had some foreboding of his approaching Dissolution; because there were found in his Cabinet two Letters directed to the King; one of which was sealed, and the other not; with an Order, that when he died they should both be delivered to his Majesty. In the Letter which was unseal'd, he signify'd, that he did not know how soon Death might surprize him, and therefore he begg'd Leave of his Majesty to recommend his Family to him. The King could not help melting into Tears when he read both the Letters; and he discovered the Extremity of his Affliction by a Letter which he sign'd with his own Hand to the Baron de Pudewitz, the Minister of State, wherein he declares, that he shall never forget the Velt Marshal's Services, in whom he regrets the Loss of an able and a faithful Minister; and that to relieve the Sorrow which his Family suffers by his Death, he will take as much Care of them as if he were their Father. All the Baron de Grumkau's Friends are likewise very much concerned at his Death; especially the Baron de Borck, who was created a Velt Marshal in 1737, at the same Time with the Deceased; for on the 7th in the Morning, when the Baron was acquainted of his Death, it seized him to such a Degree that he fainted away, and was for some time Speechless. The Velt Marshal de Natzer is also indispofed upon the same Account. The King has wrote a most gracious Letter to the Baroness Dowager de Grumkau; and as one Instance of the Protection with which he intends to honour the Family, has appointed the young Baron de Grumkau, who is 14 Years of Age, to be Ensign in Kalkstein's Regiment of Foot. The King has ordered the Major General de Sydow, to spare no Cost for the Velt Marshal's Funeral, to the End, that it may be pompous and suitable to the Rank and Merit of the Deceased. The Family's Affliction is increased by the melancholy News of the Death of the Baron's Daughter, the Baroness Dowager de Kulau, who coming from her Country Seat to Berlin to condole with her Mother, and ferrying over the River Elbe in tempestuous Weather, her Coach Horses took Fright and leap'd into the Water, dragging the Coach after them, by which Means the said Lady and her eldest Daughter were drown'd; but their Chamber-Maid who was standing in the Ferry-boat escap'd.

As for his Prussian Majesty, the Gout he has by Fits in his Legs, is the only Reason that confines him to his Chamber, but otherwise he is perfectly well, and has a good Stomach. Every Morning his Majesty repairs to the Windows of his Chamber to see his tall Grenadiers mount the Guard, and he generally spends 4 or 6 Hours a Day in Paining.

Stockholm, March 14. O. S. Tho' it was said that no more mention was to be made in the Diet of the 5 deposed Senators, yet that Affair does not seem to be quite done with; for the Deputies of the Nobility having on the 6th Inst. communicated the Matter to the three other Orders of the States, the Ecclesiastical Order took the Affair immediately into Consideration, and declared next Day to the Nobility by a Deputation, that they did not think the Reasons alleg'd, weighty enough to deprive those Senators of their Functions; and that even tho' what had been laid to their Charge could be proved beyond Dispute, the Secret Committee ought only to have reprimanded them. This Declaration occasioned great Debates, which grew so warm, that they were obliged to send to the Count de Telfin, the Marshal or Speaker of the Diet, who was indispofed, and kept his Chamber, to desire him to come to the Assembly; which he did, and his Presence and Counsel assuaged the Ferment. After this it was resolved, that the Nobility should send another Deputation to the Order of the Clergy to engage them to recede from their Opposition; and that a Deputation should likewise be sent to the other Orders, to determine them to conform to the Resolution taken by the Nobility. What the Clergy and Peasants Orders have resolv'd on we don't yet know; but on the 10th Instant that of the Burghers conformed to the Sentiment of the Nobility, with this Reservation, viz. In case that Ways and Means be not found out to continue those Senators in the Exercise of their Offices.

Vienna, March 17. O. S. Yesterday an Express arriv'd from Hungary, with News of the Death of General Count Cohari, who was Colonel of a Regiment of Dragoons. We are assur'd that the Velt Marshal de Wallis will set out next Monday without fail for that Country, to which the Count de Martinitz and the Baron de Wallis, Adjutants General, went two Days ago.

Naples, March 6. O. S. As the King was going some Days ago from Portici to perform his Devotions at the Church of Notre Dame del Arco, he met a Chain of 36 Felons upon the Road that were carrying to the Gallies, who call'd out to his Majesty with a loud Voice for his Mercy, and that he would give them their Liberty, which his Majesty not only granted them, but gave them a Treat, and 40 Sequins a Man; and after they were charged to lead better Lives for the future, they were dismiss'd. The King return'd from Portici to the Royal Palace on the 2d Inst. which was the first Time he had been there since the Queen had the Small Pox; and upon this Occasion there was a very numerous and splendid Court to compliment their Majesties, not only upon the Queen's Recovery, but on the Conclusion of the Marriage of his Royal Brother Don Philip with the first Princess of France; and at Night there were Illuminations and Firing of the Cannon from all the Forts, as well as the Ships in the Harbour. Next Day the King and Queen went to the Metropolitan Church to hear the Te Deum.

Rome, March 10. O. S. The Canon Otticoni, one of the Chiefs of the Corsican Malecontents, who is arriv'd here, has not only taken the Title of Chaplain to the King of the Two Sicilies, but that of Plenipotentiary of the Malecontents.

Genoa, March 10. O. S. Last Tuesday an Express from Madrid pass'd thro' this City for Naples, who say that the Court of Spain acceded on the 24th of February, O. S. to the Treaty of Vienna, on Condition nevertheless, that his Catholick Majesty shall not be obliged to guarantee the Pragmatick Sanction, and with a Reserve moreover to his Pretensions to the Allodial Estates of the Duchies of Parma and Placentia.

From the London Gazette.

Naples, March 10. N. S. The Ship of War St. Charles is ordered to sail from hence for Cadiz, to take in several Cannon, &c. which his Catholick Majesty has presented to the King. On the 5th Instant the King went to shoot at Agnano, on which Occasion, as he pass'd thro' this City, he saw the Queen (perfectly recovered) at the Balcony of the Palace. His Majesty, 'tis said, will remove on the 13th Instant from Portici to this City. The Prince d'Ardore is appointed to go Ambassador from the King to the Court of Spain, to relieve the Prince della Rocca Filomarini, who is to repair hither to take Possession of the Office conferred on him of Master of the Horse to the Queen.

Warsaw, March 25. O. S. On the 13th Instant Baron Keyserling, the Russian Minister Plenipotentiary, being returned from Petersburg, had Audience of the King, and afterwards of the Queen. This Minister has brought two enamelled Pictures of the Czarina, set with Diamonds, and presented them in her Imperial Majesty's Name, one to the Countess of Callovrat, Grand Mistress of the Queen's Household, and the other to the Countess de Bruhl, Lady of the King's Cabinet Minister. On the 15th Te Deum was sung in St. John's Church, in Thanksgiving for the Queen of the Two Sicilies Recovery from the Small Pox. Every thing being settled relating to the Affairs of Courland, his Polish Majesty opened a Court on the 18th for the Hearing of Appeals from the Tribunals of that Duchy: Which Ceremony being performed, the Court was adjourned till after the Investiture. On the 20th M. Fink, of Finkenstien, Chancellor and Plenipotentiary of the Duke of Courland, made his publick Entry, accompanied by the chief of the Nobility, (the Foreign Ministers excusing themselves, to avoid Disputes about Precedency) and was received by the King of Poland in the Senate House, where the Senators and Ministers of State were assembled. M. Fink in a Speech asked on his Knees the Investiture for the Duke of Courland, acknowledging that it was a Duty which his Highness should have performed in Person, had not his ill Health prevented him. The great Chancellor of Poland, in the King's Name, and by his Majesty's Order, gave him Investiture of the Duchy, for which he paid Homage and swore Fidelity to the King and the Republick. He then rose up, and was immediately seated by his Majesty on a common Chair with his Hat on: Which Ceremony being over, he was re-conducted, a Nobleman of Courland carrying before him the Standard, which he had received as the Mark of Investiture, with the Arms of the Duchy. On the 23d and 24th some Appeals from Courland were pleaded and decided, his Majesty being present on the Throne.

Vienna, April 1. N. S. The Emperor has newly made the following Promotion of General Officers. Prince Joseph Wenceslaus de Lichenstein, the Emperor's Ambassador at Paris, and Count Bathfany, Lieutenant Generals, are made Generals of Horse. The Majors General Baron Moicke, Count Dium, the Prince of Salm, and Count Broune de Camus, are made Lieutenant Generals. And the Colonels Count Kobay, Holle, and Ollonne, as also Baron Helfrich, and the Prince Palatine de Birckenfeld, are made Majors General. Recruits for the Imperial Regiments are frequently sent down the Danube in large Vessels, to join their respective Corps in Hungary. It is not doubted but General Wallis will set out on Friday next; and General Suckau sets out this Day, to take the Command of Belgrade, in the Place of M. Marulli. It is more suspected than ever, that the Designs of the Turks are against Belgrade.

Hague, April 10. N. S. The late Lieutenant General Montese's Government of Tournay was this Morning disposed of, in favour of the Prince of Hesse Homburg. The States General at the same time advanced M. Van Dorth, their eldest Major General of Foot, to the Rank of Lieutenant General; and M. Spaan, their eldest Brigadier, to that of Major General; so that all the Vacancies which M. Montese's Death had made in the Military Establishment of the Republick, are now filled up.

THE Case of King JEHOSEPHAT

and of the Church of England parallel'd: Or, The Church's Fair Appeal to the God of Truth, according to his Holy Oath and Covenant, against her combined Enemies the QUAKERS; for presuming, ungratefully, as the Edomites, &c. against Jehoshaphat, and Jeroboam against Abijah, to thrust out her painful and laborious Clergy, from the Inheritance of the Lord, her Tithes; or at least to render them precarious, that they may insult her, and bring in an Irrundation of LIES and wicked Principles to corrupt the Church of God.

It is Time for thee, Lord, to work, for they have made void thy Law. Psal. cxix. 126.

Qui in sande fide sanus & integer permanere volueris duplici modo munire fidem suam debes, primum scilicet, divina legis auctoritate, tum deinde Catholica Ecclesie auctoritate. Vincentius Lirinensis in Communitor.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible

Chre in the Universe for the Venereal Disease, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so effectually prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks on one Hand, or a venereal Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breaking out, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy of true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have to their great Joy experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplished, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it entirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind, for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, as remains in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and even leprous Eruptions of Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose, than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble Anti-SYPHILICON is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Effect, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RAYMOND's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.
